

A painting of a Dutch town street. In the foreground, several figures in 18th-century clothing are gathered near a wooden fence. A horse-drawn carriage is visible on the right. The background features a row of multi-story brick houses with numerous windows and chimneys under a cloudy sky.

get your early bird € 10,- discount by registering to our anniversary seminar
before October 1st